

Burgan Bank would like to inform you that BB does not have any significant/material information not disclosed during the last period and there was no recent developments that would have impact on the bank or its affairs in such way resulting non-ordinary activity in trading BB shares, in addition, the bank did not comment on this activity due to the slight amount of shares traded during the above-mentioned trading session compared to the total number of BB issued shares.

In the meantime, we hereby confirm our permanent commitment of all instructions issued by CMA and KSE.