

Burgan Bank would like to inform that Burgan Bank does not have any critical information that should have been disclosed during the preceded period. There were no developments occurred recently that may impact the bank or its affairs and activities in such a way that results in the unusual trading in the bank's shares on 14/5/2015.